

Once again I would like to state that it is time to remove the Morse Code requirement. And agree with the idea to upgrade all technician and technician plus license holders to General Class.